

Andy Sheppard's Dalston Saxophone Massive
Performance on Friday 10 November 2006
at Gillett Square, Dalston, LONDON N16
Person Specification

AGE- NO LIMIT!

We require saxophone players of all ages and abilities. Participants should be able to travel independently to the rehearsal space and other venues as required within the Dalston area. If you are under the age of 18 we will require written consent from a parent/ guardian that you have permission to attend rehearsals and the final performance.

PASSION AND INTEREST IN MUSIC

We are delighted to be part of the opening of Gillett Square in Dalston on Friday 10 November 2006, and are looking for musicians who are focused and passionate about playing the saxophone and who are interested in playing with UK saxophonist Andy Sheppard.

BE COMMITTED!

We'll need you to sign an agreement so we know you really want to be involved. This also tells you that we take you seriously and value the commitment you are making to us. Although not legally binding, it is a professional contract outlining what you are committing to and what we will give you in return.

WHAT YOU WILL GET IN RETURN

You will get to be part of a historic event, as the Mayor of London and Mayor of Hackney are scheduled to attend. You will get to play with Andy Sheppard, one of the leading saxophonists from Britain, and also have the pleasure of rehearsing and playing with some of the most talented UK musicians, James Morton and Tony Kofi and conductor/facilitator Orphy Robinson.

HOW OFTEN AND WHEN ARE THE REHERSHALS?

There will be 4 rehearsals, which you will be expected to attend, and one final performance at Gillett Square. It is always important that you are always on time and bring your instrument with you.

HOW TO APPLY

Please fill out an application form attached.

DEADLINE – Wednesday 4 October 2006

We will only contact successful applicants for conformation of rehearsal dates and time. Also please remember this is a first come first serve basis so be quick as places go fast!
