

Take the trip of a lifetime on the unique BRUNEL BICENTENARY STEAM TRAIN SPECIAL Celebrate the bicentenary of I.K.Brunel's birth, and his 170th wedding anniversary, with a journey by steam on his own Great Western Railway. On this memorable day you will thrill to the long forgotten sound and smell of a GWR King Class locomotive racing through the countryside down the most famous pioneering line from the golden age of steam. Travel in style on a train of historic Venice Simplon-Orient-Express Pullman carriages drawn by locomotive No.6024 "King Edward I", carrying a special headboard in honour of Isambard Kingdom Brunel to commemorate this unique event.

The Brunel Bicentenary Special: London-Bristol, departing Paddington
mid-morning.

Begin your journey with a champagne reception beneath the great arched roof of Brunel's monumental London terminus before experiencing the nostalgic pleasure of lunching elegantly on the train as you travel down the Great Western Railway to Bristol Temple Meads on the Brunel Bicentenary Special.

The Brunel Wedding Anniversary Special: Bristol-London, departing Temple Meads
in the early evening.

On 5th July 1836, exactly 170 years ago, Brunel married Mary Horsley. To mark this occasion the train will be transformed into the Brunel Wedding Anniversary Special. You will be served champagne before dining in glamorous Pullman carriages, romantically lit by frosted glass lamps, as you travel along Brunel's great railway in the long shadows of a summer evening, steaming majestically into Paddington Station as the sun is setting.
